John Carroll's Thomas Earns OAC Women's Tennis Coach-of-the-Year

Twinsburg, OH -- John Carroll Head Coach Bruce Thomas has been named the 2004 OAC Women's Tennis Coach-of-the-Year, as selected by his peers.

Thomas led the Blue Streaks to their first-ever OAC regular-season title and their seventh overall OAC Tournament championship in 2004. This is JCU's first Tournament title since the team dual meet format was introduced in 2002. John Carroll, the top-seed in the Tournament, defeated #9 seed Muskingum, 5-0 and #4 seed Capital, 5-3 before meeting Ohio Northern in the championship bout and capturing a 5-4 victory. Prior to 2003, the Conference Tournament champion was recognized as the OAC overall champion.

Thomas is just the second JCU coach to be named Women's Tennis OAC Coach-of-the-Year. This honor was inaugurated in 1995.

Baldwin-Wallace's Isaac Named the 2004 OAC Player-of-the-Year

Twinsburg, OH -- Baldwin-Wallace freshman Andrea Isaac (New Philadelphia) has been named 2004 OAC Player-of-the-Year, as selected by the League coaches. This is the second year for the presentation of the award.

Isaac, who finished 19-1 on the year, set the school record for winning percentage in a season (.950) and was one win shy of setting the single-season record for wins (20). Isaac went a perfect 8-0 in Conference play.

Listed below are the 2004 All-OAC teams. The coaches began voting on All-Conference teams in 2002. Prior to 2002 season, All-OAC award winners were the champion and runner-up at each position.
