(COLLEGEVILLE, MN)--Mount Union College senior linebacker Judd Lutz (Tiffin/Tiffin Columbian) was named one of 10 finalists for the Gagliardi Trophy given to the top all-around football player in NCAA Division III.

The Gagliardi Trophy was first presented in 1993. Since that time, the award has become one of the leading collegiate football awards and is widely recognized as the premier individual award in Division III football, honoring excellence in athletics, academics and community service.

Nominations for the award are made by the college president with supporting letters and credentials provided by the head football coach. After screening the nominations, the SJU J-Club Board of Directors narrows the field to 10 finalists including at least one finalist in each of the four NCAA regions. The 35-member Gagliardi Trophy national selection committee reviews the credentials, ranks the candidates 1-10 and casts their votes.

For the third year, fans will be given one collective vote by casting votes on the web site www.d3football.com. The student-athlete with the highest vote total is named recipient.

The winner will be announced at a banquet on Thursday, Dec. 17 as part of festivities leading up to the NCAA Division III National Championship game, the Stagg Bowl, in Salem, VA.

NOTE: Football Academic All-OAC will be announced on Wednesday, December 2
Cross Country Special Awards will be announced on Tuesday, December 8
