

CLEVELAND, OHIO

Cleveland is a NCAA Championship City!

The NCAA has selected Cleveland as one of six cities across the nation to serve as inaugural members in its new "NCAA Championship City" pilot program, proving that Northeast Ohio is fast becoming a premier destination for hosting major sporting events.

The Championship City pilot program will feature multiple host opportunities of NCAA Division I, II and III men's and women's championships through 2012.

These championships will celebrate Cleveland and provide an enhanced experience unlike any other for NCAA student-athletes and fans.

Cleveland will host the following NCAA Championships:

November 19-21, 2009, Division III Women's Volleyball National Championships at John Carroll University.

November 21, 2009, Division III Cross Country National Championships at Highland Hills Golf Club, hosted by Baldwin-Wallace College.

May 25-30, 2010, Division III Men's Tennis Championships hosted by Oberlin College.

May 27-29, 2010, Division III Men's and Women's Outdoor Track and Field Championships, Baldwin-Wallace College.

April 2011 (dates TBD), National Collegiate Women's Gymnastics Championships hosted by Kent State University at the Wolstein Center.

visit clevelandsports.org for more information